

Bartender

You shake, stir, mix and garnish. You would never let the bar top tarnish. You blend it all together and never offend, you treat everyone at the bar like a long lost friend.

What you'll do

You are a master of all things behind the bar and you play a major role in the overall guest experience.

- You monitor and control alcohol consumption to ensure guest safety.
- Handle glassware carefully to prevent breakage and loss.
- You are attentive to guests and make them feel welcome.
- You know the menu and can confidently suggest food and wine pairings.
- You always offer a food menu to guests without having to be asked.
- You have a better than average understanding of beer and wine and cocktail recipes. You know our wine list and can easily make wine recommendations to guests.
- You keep things running smoothly by being in constant communication with host, servers and kitchen staff.
- You follow proper rules of hygiene and food safety measures.
- Take out trash and clean and stock restrooms as needed.
- Keep the bar clean and stocked; roll silverware; prepare bar mixes and garnishes.

- When “spirits” based cocktails are ordered, you always suggest a specific brand upsell.
- Sweep and mop floors, especially in the event that items are broken or spilled.
- Keep bar-top clean by removing glassware, dishes and other items no longer in use; Take dirty dishes, glassware and utensils to dish washing area.
- Clean and sanitize high touch surface areas.
- Take ownership of guest requests, even if it is not about the restaurant, and see through to completion. Example: Directions or recommendations about the area.
- Support other restaurant staff by assisting with other tasks like answering the phone, taking reservations, and taking/cashing out take-out orders.
